

10 Things Fans Do to Promote Amateur Wrestling

1. Attend meets, even though your son or daughter isn't in the program.
2. Volunteer to help at a dual meet, tournament, or other event.
3. Wear your school colors at meets or events.
4. Attend away meets as well as home meets.
5. Congratulate and talk to wrestlers as you see them in the community.
6. Attend other meets of neighboring teams, see where the competition is.
7. Attend a college meet; see what the next level of competition looks like.
8. Join and get active in your local wrestling booster club.
9. Be positive about your team, no matter what their record is.
10. Subscribe to the Guillotine, Minnesota's only wrestling newspaper.

 This list was produced by the president of the Minnesota wrestling coaches association, Mike Niemczyk, and was printed in the Guillotine newspaper in 1988. To promote amateur wrestling, this list still holds true 20+ years later.
